"The actual cash available out of the imprest of Rs 100/- is Rs. 63/-6-6 and this is hardly enough for cart-hire and luggage charges. There are three applications from the mutchi & peons for Rs. 18/-

It is requested that an advance of Rs. 25/- may be taken from the said imprest to be returned after cashing the D.C. bill within about a week

Registrar with Compliments. The advance may be kindly given if possible.

Comp imprest has also run very low & we need all the money we have for to-days payments

In the circumstances it does not seem possible to comply with the request.

Routine Notes.

Respectfully submitted for kind orders.

It is not known how Rs. 100 was considered enough for the imprest of the Office. The experience, without any exception, has been that the imprest is not enough on any occasion; and every time money had to be borrowed either from the Special Duty Office or out of the amount drawn for disbursing T.A. to the members of the R.A. This time the balance available at Bangalore was hardly enough for the luggage and other expenditure, and the mutchi and menials had to be denied any advance towards their expenditure to be proceed to Mysore.

The expenditure for stn. articles was nearly Rs. 30/- and some money had to be paid for the V.P. consignment containing Legislative Assembly & State Council Debates. It is hardly possible to prepare a D.C. bill for each item of expenditure, and even if it is done some appreciable time would be necessary to have the bill cashed and recoup the expense.

N.B. Should routine notes be written on small slips, the notes must be copied, or slips pasted on this form.

The menials and the mutchi should all of them apply for advances Asst.

about Rs. 30 would have to be paid as advance and considering the heavy luggage & the Express of nearly more than Rs. 40/— at least an imprest of Rs. 200 would be necessary. If this is considered heavy at least one or more . necessary to draw an advance from the Bangalore Try up to Rs. 150/- ~~Rs.~~ each time the Office has to proceed to Home for duty.

Submitted for orders.
